LINES

To my friend Sallie McC., of Pittsburg.

Oh, give me a friend, whose heart throbs with feeling,
Is worthy each thought of my bosom to know,
Who, when emotion my tongue is revealing,
Can share in my bliss, or can feel for my woe.

Who when I do wrong, will feelingly chide me,
And point out the beauties of virtue and truth,
And when I am weak, will never deride me,
But view with compassion the feelings of youth.

As the vine of the forest endearingly twines
Round some stupendous tree,
The longer it grows, the more closely it binds,
Till felled by the axe-man's own hand.

'Tis thus, round the hearts of the good and the leader,
Entwines the dear feeling of friendship and love;
And when to the rude stroke of death they surrender,
Transplanted from earth, they shall flourish above.

HOPE OF HEAVEN.

O, how the hope of heaven lights
The pilgrim's darkened road,
O, how the hope of heaven tends,
To lead us up to God.

O, how consoling is the hope
That when the storms are o'er,
We 'll anchor safe within the port,
Upon the "shining shore."

That hope around the sufferer's heart,
Its cheering tendrils twine,
That hope's indeed a natural branch,
From the eternal vine.

That hope's a wreath of flowers bright,
From heaven's eternal shore,
Where we expect to live and sing,
When all our toils are o'er.

Let all the praise of mortal tongues,
To God alone be given,
For this inestimable gift,
This cheering hope of Heaven.

Akersville, March, 1860. J. M. A.

FIRST GUN FOR CAMERON.—The municipal election in Chicago, a few days ago, which resulted in the success of the entire Opposition ticket by over twelve hundred majority, may be, regarded as a substantial Cameron Victory! The officers elect, with one exception, are active members of the Cameron Club, and all open of avowed friends Gen. Cameron for the Presidential nomination. The Mayor eleet, Hon. John Wentworth, recently delivered an able and eloquent speech before the Cameron Club, in which he fully endorsed Gen. Cameron and took strong ground in his favor as the "man for the times, the man for the people, and the man for victory." The general is decidedly popular in Illinois, and will be warmly supported by the delegates of that State in the National Convention.

AN UNLUCKY CANDIDATE.—Gen. Henry D. Foster, the Democratic nominee for Governor, has been singularly unfortunate in his efforts to obtain public office. He ran for Canal Commissioner in 1849, and was defeated by James M. Power, the Whig candidate, by nearly nine thousand majority. In 1856, and again in 1857, he turned up as a candidate for the United States Senate, but was defeated in one case by Senator Bigler, and in the other by John W. Forney. In 1858, Gen. Foster ran for Congress in his district, which is strongly democratic, and was defeated by honest John Covode to the tune of eleven hundred. He has thus been shown to be exceedingly weak before the people—a fact of which there will be additional proof in a day or two after the October election.

OUR COMMON SCHOOLS.

There are now 188 schools in the county, including the one for colored children in Bedford township. There is an increase of 4 since last year. Six of them, however, were not opened during this winter, leaving only 182 in active operation; and upon the whole, when taken together they have been doing better during the last session than ever before. In a few townships where the wages were reduced, good teachers could not be obtained and consequently some of the schools did not do so well. Reasonably good wages will soon secure good teachers and good schools; and if the teachers are not to be had at home, they will come from abroad. We have had better teachers; better schools; more life and energy and less quarreling and jangling among them in this county during the past winter than we have had for five years previous. It was very cheering to the County Superintent to hear, as a common expression, from almost every section of the county, "Our schools have done first rate this winter." It is true there were a few failures; a few persons succeeded in getting in as teachers who should not have gotten in; but such instances were not as numerous as formerly, indeed they were rare, and it is to be hoped this will be more fully guarded against in future. The plan of grading the teacher's certificates is a very good one; under its influence they put forth efforts to improve themselves for the duties of the schoolroom, that under other circumstances they would not do. In these townships where all the teachers are put into one and the same grade and receive wages alike, I find that the schools are the poorest.—Poor teachers sometimes enquire for such districts, knowing that a poor certificate will go just as far there as a good one and command just as good wages. A good teacher can give more correct instructions, in one day, to a school and give it in a better form too, than ten poor ones can in double the time, and therefore should receive better wages. The principle of grading the certificates should come into general use. I find also that in those districts where the Directors have their monthly meetings, at least during the winter, to transact business, the schools flourish better than where such meetings are not regularly held. All the Boards should have their regularly stated meetings, and there, and there only, except in unusual cases, do whatever business is to be done.—Where this plan is adopted the directors have less trouble in employing teachers, hearing complaints, settling difficulties and with whatever business may come before them.

Being favored with reasonably good health this winter, and good weather and good roads, I was enabled to visit 174 of the 182 schools that were open. The short term of the schools and the amount of labor required in some of them, prevented me from visiting six of the remaining eight; two of them being called at but they had no school on that day. In my visits after examining the school and making corrections if any were necessary I mostly spoke to the children from twenty to thirty minutes by way of encouraging them to put forth their best efforts to improve. I suppose as many as one hundred and forty schools were addressed in this way. I met with the hearty co-operation of all the Directors in my labors, and of all the teachers also excepting a few whose path I had crossed either at the examinations or elsewhere. SUPERINTENDENT.

Bedford, Mar. 6.

"Occasional," the well informed correspondent of the Philadelphia Press, writing under date of the 29th inst., says:

"Do not be all astonished if, within a few days, the whole country is agitated by such a demonstration upon Mexico as will present new and exciting issues to the people. The pear is almost ripe, and I have no doubt, in a short time will fall into our lap. It is said a number of the military men now in in this city, (Washington) from all parts of the Union, are preparing to rush to the field of strife the moment the first gun is fired. The conflict between the factions in Mexico has reached that height that the empire is being rent to pieces, and the population, once so bitterly opposed to everything like annexation to the United States, now look to this country as their only refuge from utter anarchy, and continued and bloody civil war. At this juncture, with Gen. Houston Governor of Texas, I would not be at all surprised if the Hero of San Jacinto should himself be placed at the head of the Army of Liberation, and should override all politicians by permanently settling that troublesome problem, and thus make himself the Chief Magistrate of the American nation.

The Senate Printing Investigating Committee is collecting a mass of facts regarding the printing corruptions of the last Congress, and also the bargains already made by Bowman, who has been elected Printer. It appears that Bowman pays Jewett, of the Know Nothing Buffalo paper, 50 cents on the dollar, for printing the post office blanks, Bowman pocketing the other half for nothing. This is even worse than his agreement with Blair & Rives, when he gets one-third of the sum paid by Government as his share. Bowman, finding Heartt, the Superintendent of Printing, too honest a man to suit his purposes, is endeavoring to have him removed. Heartt refuses to put the Government to the extra expense of delivering the paper for the post office blanks in Buffalo, under Bowman's 50 cent arrangement, and hence the difficulty. The total amount of this work is about $40,000 a year, and under Bowman's arrangement this nets him $20,000 profit—for doing nothing. Crowell refused to execute the work for Bowman for 50 cents, and Jewett was, thereupon, employed.

THE SLAUGHTER HOUSE.

If ever any political Convention deserved the name of "Slaughter House," the Reading Convention is pre-eminently entitled to the appellation. For more wilful, wicked, premeditated butchery was never perpetrated. The victim of this massacre had earned, and therefore had a right to expect, better things at the hands of those for whom he had spent his breath and time, and sacrificed his manhood. For three long years Mr. Witte has carried the Buchanan flag, battling against and breasting the popular fury, that the corruptions and venality of the Administration at Washington had aroused. That he did it with spirit, courage, and ability, all admit. To him, more than to any other man, they owe it that they were utterly annihilated in Philadelphia and the eastern counties. As a reward for these services, his Royal Highness J. B. had solemnly pledged to Mr. Witte the support and aid of the Administration, in general, and of the Philadelphia Custom House and Navy Yard in particular, to secure his nomination as Governor of the Commonwealth. The consideration for this aid had been rendered, the Convention met, the Buchanan men had it all in their own hands. The creatures and minions of the Administration were swarming in the Convention. And had they been true to their promises and pledges, a single ballot would have decided the contest in Mr. Witte's favor. But instead of marching up like fair, honest men to the work, they commenced fillibustering, and casting their votes about in every direction. And then, perceiving, notwithstanding all their efforts to the contrary, that Witte would be nominated, the illustrious Bigler, and the shrewd Custom House officials, not daring themselves to come out openly against Witte, prompted Mr. Dietrich, a shrewd West Branch lawyer, who was doubtless in the secret of the whole arrangement, to move that Henry D. Foster be nominated by acclamation; and all at once, Bigler, Baker & Co. turn upon poor Witte, apply the knife to his throat, and the slaughter is complete. Is any person so ignorant or simple, as to believe for a moment that this was a spontaneous outburst of the feelings and sentiments of the Convention? That the whole scheme was concocted and arranged at Washington and Philadelphia nobody doubts. That it is characteristic of the faithlessness and treachery of Buchanan and his satellites every one knows.

The mock enthusiasm which the Stage managers have endeavored to display, by the aid of claquers, are the forced efforts of a desperate faction. The people of this country in a quiet and sober way, but in a way that shall utterly stupefy and appal these demagogues, have a long and black account to settle with them.—They are to be arraigned at the bar of the country for high crimes and misdemeanors; the evidence of guilt are overwhelming, the verdict inevitable, and the judgment certain and terrible. Their conspiracies against the rights and sovereignty of the people and the States; their abuse and corruption of the elective franchise; their attempts to force Slavery into all the free Territories of this country, in disregard alike of the will of the people and the plain precepts of the Constitution and laws of the country; their affiliation with treason and traitors against the peace and integrity of the Union, are fresh in the minds of the people, and are to haunt them like grim spectres at every step during this campaign. Such is the ponderous load that the nominee of the Reading Convention is to carry for the next seven months, and with the very small amount of back-bone he has heretofore exhibited, we risk little in saying that it will crush him beneath its weight.—Harrisburg Telegraph.

THREATENING TO REPLY!

Brigadier General George Washington Bowman, on the morning after he was elected Printer to the Senate, announced in the columns of his paper, the Constitution, that—

"We shall take occasion to notice some of the points of the discussion yesterday, and reply, in good temper, to some of the allegations which were made against the editor of this paper. This is a duty we owe to ourselves, to our patrons, and the party which claims our services and allegiance."

Up to latest dates not a word has been uttered by this blustering and corrupt Government Printer. Senator Brown, of Mississippi, exposed Bowman's corrupt combination with Wendell, and threatened the scoundrel, on the floor of the Senate, with a criminal prosecution.—The villian dare not reply in terms offensive to the Mississippi Senator, or he will be further exposed and disgraced, if not personally chastised. Come, Brigadier, perform this promised duty—you "owe it to yourself, to your patrons, and to your party," who elected you with a knowledge of your guilt.—Knoxville Whig.

The following are the appointments made by the M. E. Conference, which recently met at Lewisburg, for the Juniata District:—GEORGE GUYER, P. E. Hollidaysburg, E. B. Snyder; Altoona, S. Creighton; Woodbury, G. Graham, J. W. Buckley; Schellsburg, W. H. Stevens, E. Buhrman; Bedford Station, S. Barnes; Bedford Circuit, C. Cleaver, H. Lynn; New Grenada, A. J. Bender, one to be supplied; Cassville, J. A. Coleman, J. G. Moore; Huntingdon, S. L. M. Conser; Manor Hill, A. M. Barnitz, J. C. Clark; Williamsburg, T. Barnhart; Birmingham, J. A. Melick, M. L. Smith; Philipsburg, H. Wilson, J. D. Brown; Curwensville and Clearfield, W. L. Spotswood; New Washington, E. W. Kirby, C. H. Kitchin; Jamesville, H. S. Mendenhall, Wm. A. Houck.

The triennial election of the County Superintendent of Common Schools will take place in the several counties of this Commonwealth, on the first Monday in May next. The law provides that the election shall be held at the county seat of each county.

Biographical Sketch of Hon. Andrew G. Curtin.

ANDREW G. CURTIN, the candidate of the People's party for Governor of Pennsylvania, was born the 22d of April, 1817, in Bellefonte, a beautiful village in the county of Centre, so called because it lies in the very heart of the Commonwealth. This county is away from the great routes between the North and the South, the East and the West, and thus it is not as well known as it ought to be that it is exceedingly rich and lovely abounding in iron ores, fertile valleys, and fine streams. The rare facilities of this region attracted to it, at an early day, the energies and the residence of Roland Curtin, who for forty years, was a leading iron manufacturer in Centre county, accumulated a competent estate, and has left three sons; brothers of Andrew, engaged in the great staple business of Pennsylvania.—Andrew G. Curtin comes of first-rate Pennsylvania stock. His father married a daughter of Andrew Gregg, who was one of the great men of Pennsylvania in the early part of this century. He was a representative from the interior of the State in first Congress under the Constitution, and sat in the House of Representatives for eighteen successive years.—Then he was transferred to the United States Senate, and served a term of six years.—Andrew Gregg was a steady supporter of the administration of the early Presidents, and especially of Jefferson and Madison. He offered in Congress the famous war resolutions which preceded our last conflict with Great Britain, and which elicited the eloquence of Henry Clay and John Randolph. After his retirement from Congress, he acted as Secretary of the Commonwealth during the Administration of Governor Joseph Heister. Every Pennsylvanian of middle age will remember the fierce and decisive State canvass of 1823, when the old Federal party, under the lead of Andrew Gregg as their candidate for Governor, made a last stand for victory and existence, and were defeated by the old Pennsylvania Democracy, under the lead of John Andrew Shulze. There can be no doubt that the grandson, Andrew Gregg Curtin, standard-bearer as he is of the real Democracy of the State at this day, will fare better than his grandfather.

The subject of our sketch was educated at the academy of the Rev. J. Kirkpatrick, in Milton, Northumberland county. Mr. Kirkpatrick, still living in Allegheny county, was one of the old style of instructors. He "turned out" his boys thoroughly impregnated with the classics and mathematics. It is quite a coincidence, that Gov. Jas. Pollock, President of the late State Convention which nominated Mr. Curtin, and Messrs. Samuel Calvin and David Taggart, both candidates for the nomination, were educated by the same instructor. These three gentlemen, in their speeches to the Convention, indorsing its nominee, referred, in most touching terms, to the happy memories of the sunny days when they were boys together in the good old Milton Academy.

After getting well imbued with as much Latin, Greek, and mathematics as any of our colleges afford, the young Curtin was placed in the law school of Judge Reed, of Carlisle.—This school was one of the departments of Dickinson College, and as long as its professor lived, it flourished, and sent forth some of the best lawyers and public men of Pennsylvania. Judge Reed was well known for his "Pennsylvania Blackstone," one of the first attempts ever made to adopt the immortal "Commentaries" to our modern law. He was a first rate lawyer, and an adept in teaching legal principles.

Andrew G. Curtin was admitted to the bar in 1839, and began the practice of the law in his native town. He immediately entered upon a large and varied practice, and has ever since been constantly and actively employed in the courts of the counties of Centre, Clearfield, Mifflin and Clinton. His great information, his vigorous mind, and his candor, recommended him to the courts; his winning style made him powerful with juries. He rapidly became one of the best known and most rising young men in central Pennsylvania.

A man with the gifts and temperaments of Andrew G. Curtin could not fail to be largely interested and concerned in public affairs.—Strikingly amiable, genial, and warm hearted of luminous, quick, and extensive intelligence, of the most engaging address, endowed with a fluent, facetious and captivating eloquence, and instinct with old Pennsylvania traditions of policy and patriotism, he threw himself at once into those political controversies which, as Burke tells us, are the noblest employments of the cultivated man. He was an ardent and thorough-going Whig, and in 1840 he took an active part in that enthusiastic campaign which made General Harrison President of the United States. In 1844 he was a fervent adherent of the illustrious candidate of the Whigs, and he stumped all central Pennsylvania for Henry Clay and protection to American Industry. In that struggle, Mr. Curtin first acquired his wide-spread reputation for effective and resistless popular eloquence. There is not a county, from the Susquehanna to to the Alleghenies, in which the name of Andrew G. Curtin ever fails to attract the very largest crowds, who eagerly gather to enjoy the feats of wisdom and wit, of humor and pathos, of poetry, statistics, story, argument and imagery, which spread out in his glowing and melodious periods.

In 1848, he was placed on the Whig electoral ticket, and again traversed many sections of the State in behalf of General Zachary Taylor. He was an original supporter of the nomination of General Winfield Scott, and in 1852 he was again placed on the electoral ticket and worked with his usual zeal to carry the State for the Hero of the Valley of Mexico. Indeed, Mr. Curtin was at all times a thorough and tried Pennsylvania Whig, devoted to a l those conservative and humane ideas which distinguished that party which now sleeps in the graves of Clay and Webster. He is by training, and by mature conviction, a believer in systematic and efficient Protection, in liberal internal improvements, in the policy of encouraging well-paid and wide-diffused Free American Labor. Such a Whig could not fail to be a leader and counselor of the party, and, accordingly, Mr. Curtin was an influential member of nearly every Whig State Convention which met during the last ten years of the Whig party's existence.

No man was ever more popular at home. He is endowed with much of that rare magnetism which neutralizes social and political differences, and makes the man stronger than his party.—As an illustration of this, in the year 1849, Centre county composed part of the senatorial district in which Gen. Wm. F. Packer, now Governor, was the Democratic candidate for the State Senate. The Whig candidate withdrew from the canvass on the Friday before the election. At the earnest and general solicitation of the party, Col. Curtin took the field.—There remained only three days to canvass a very large district. Yet, while Centre county gave a majority of eleven hundred for the rest of the Democratic ticket, she gave Gen. Packer a majority of only three hundred. Three days suffised Curtin, against as strong a candidate as Packer, to scatter two-thirds of the Democratic majority.

In the year 1854, Col. Curtin was strongly urged by the counties of central Pennsylvania for the Governorship; and when Hon. James Pollock, of Northumberland, received the nomination, Curtin was made chairman of the State central committee. Upon the election of Governor Pollock, he appointed Colonel Curtin Secretary of the commonwealth. He discharged the varied duties of that office with singular ability and discretion. Governor Pollock's Administration was singularly pure, moderate, and conservative. It was not distinguished by any startling measures, or any exciting innovations. The agitations and fluctuations caused by the breaking up of the Whig party, the proslavery Democratic outrages in Kansas, the rise of the American party and the Republican organizations, and the tremendous political contest of 1856, withdrew the general attention from mere State affairs to those of national concern. But, in the midst of all, the Pollock Administration held its even way, maintaining the interests and the honor of Pennsylvania, condemning the barbarities which oppressed the people of Kansas, and faithless servilities of the Pierce and Buchanan Administrations—uttering its voice for Protection to the industries of Pennsylvania, and exhibiting, on every occasion, that dignified moderation which is so peculiar to the Pennsylvania character.—That Administration steadily won the confidence of the people as it proceeded, and retired from power attended by the respect of every citizen of the Commonwealth, and above even the suspicion of corruption or partiality. Ex-Secretary Curtin, as the intimate friend and constitutional adviser of the Governor, is fairly entitled to a full share of the credit which attaches to the honest, wise, and benign Administration of James Pollock.

During that strenuous contest for the United States Senatorship, which distinguished the legislative session of 1855, Col. Curtin was strongly and persistently urged by a large body of friends for that high position.

His department of the Administration connected him closely with our common school system as it's Superintendent. He gave laborious attention to it, and took particular pleasure in perfecting its details and increasing its efficiency. The Commonwealth is greatly indebted to him for the legislation concerning Normal Schools, which affords the methods and the means of systematically training a body of intelligent and highly competent teachers, and thus supplying the most pressing need of our Free Schools. Under the working of that law, one State Normal School is in efficient operation, and others are springing up in various parts of the Commonwealth.

Secretary Curtin was an original and active advocate of that great measure of the Pollock Administration—the sale of the Main Line of the Public Improvements. This measure was vigorously opposed before its consumation, but it is now agreed on all hands that it was timely and wise, and that the Commonwealth was thereby relieved of an incubus which annually depleted its treasury and corrupted its politics.

Since his retirement from the Secretaryship of the Commonwealth, Col. Curtin has devoted himself again to the practice of law, and the material and industrial interests of his region of the Commonwealth. He has been very active in promoting those lines of railroad which are to bring Centre, Clinton, Clearfield and the adjoining counties into connection with the Pennsylvania Central, and the Sunbury and Erie railroads. He is a gentleman of unusual public spirit, and his whole soul is bound up in the development of the immense mineral and agricultural resources of his native State. By birth, education, and lifelong habit and association, he is a Protectionist, and a traditionary believer in Free Labor, and in that policy which purposely encourages, diversifies, and perfects all the arts, industries, and refinements of a free and civilized community.

Since that auspicious union of the Opposition in Pennsylvania, which has resulted in the formation and the continued ascendency of the Republican party, Col. Curtin has been, for at least two years, regarded from many quarters of the State, as a particularly worthy and suitable candidate for Governor.—For that high position he is peculiarly well qualified. He unites an even temper and a solid judgment to great knowledge, not only of books, but of men and affairs. No man in the Commonwealth is more familiar with its history, or with its various local interests, with its diversified capacities and requirements with its legislation, its policy, and its public opinion; no one has such an extensive acquaintance all over the State. In all his private relations, and in the discharge of his official duties he has achieved a high character for probity and honor. In head and heart, in temperament and action, he is an ingrained Pennsylvanian. Within our broad limits there is none who can and will make a better Governor.

Col. Curtin is not only above all reproach, but is beloved by his immediate neighbors and his personal acquaintances. A man of dignified presence, of gracious and gentle demeanor, kind hearted, genial and sunny tempered, remarkably instructive and fascinating in conversation, he is, beyond all question, the most popular man of his age in Pennsylvania. In his native county, and all through the valleys of central Pennsylvania, every man, woman and child cherishes a feeling of personal attachment for "Andy Curtin." He is notorious at home for his open handed liberality, and for his continual charities. Although he is not rich, and left office without a cent more than when he entered it, no man in Centre county has given away as much money to relieve the wants of the poor, and aid the struggles of the embarassed. It was remarked in the late convention, which nominated him so promptly and by such a decided vote, that no man in the State had such a body of devoted enthusiastic friends. There never was a nomination more joyfully hailed. It gives equal satisfaction among the farmers and iron men of Centre, and the merchants and manufacturers of Philadelphia. The commercial metropolis of the State answers it with a wonderfully general applause. The solid business men of the city and State are delighted with it. From Lake Erie to the Delaware, this nomination is regarded as the beginning of a brilliant campaign, and the harbinger of decisive State and National victory. The Republican party could not have placed at the head of their army a more gallant, admirable, and formidable champion. He will make all Pennsylvania ring with his trenchant, sparkling and sonorous eloquence. He will be surrounded by the best men of the Republican party—the flower and promise of its future—young, intellectual, well informed, public spirited and enthusiastic; who, flocking by his side, will insure a powerful and stirring discussion of our glorious ideas of Freedom, Progress, and the Rights of Labor. Andrew G. Curtin is himself a young man, in the very prime of life, and when he becomes Governor of Pennsylvania, his Administration will exhibit all the virtues of a youthful maturity, solid enterprise, generous liberality, enlightened humanity, and a thorough Pennsylvania policy.

This sketch comes from the heart as well as the head of a true Pennsylvanian, who, much as he admires and trusts the candidate, loves the man. But let no one, therefore, suppose that the warmth of friendship colors this picture too highly. Andrew G. Curtin will soon visit every part of the State himself. Wherever he goes, the crowds who will meet and know him will become his charmed and eager personal friends.

In October the people of Pennsylvania will attest the justice of this sketch by their votes, and the future course of events will only prove the correctness of their verdict, and turn our anticipation into facts.

FEARLESS AND FREE."

D. OVER—Editor and Proprietor.

FOR PRESIDENT IN 1860,

HON. SIMON CAMERON,

OF PENNSYLVANIA,

Subject to the decision of the National Convention.)

FOR GOVERNOR:

ANDREW G. CURTIN,

OF CENTRE COUNTY.

To Our Friends!

During the past winter we sent out quite number of accounts to some of our subscribers, for subscription, varying in amount, from $4 to $20. We stated that we had purchased a property and had near $1000 to pay on the 1st of April, now near at hand, and would be glad if they could make it suit to pay the respective amounts, or at least part of them, but as yet we have not received from these persons $25, in all. Come, friends, don't let us stick, but every one of you try to pay us immediately.

PEOPLE'S CLUB.

The People's Club of Bedford Borough will meet in the County Hall, on Tuesday evening next. Addresses will be delivered by Wm. R. King and R. D. Barclay, Esqs.

PETER H. SHIRES, Prest.

D. F. MANN, Sec'ty.

DIVISION OF OUR COUNTY.

We understand that there is a secret movement going on to secure the passage of a bill through the Legislature, to again dismember Bedford County, by annexing Middle Woodberry Township to Blair County. It is gotten up at this late day, so that our people would not be prepared for it, would not have time to remonstrate, and that it might be snaked through. One of the Senators, we understand, is very busy, quietly to get Senators and members to pledge themselves for it. We have not heard of a single petition in its favor from Middle Woodberry Township, many people there being opposed to it, and if we had time, we have no doubt that all the voters in Bedford County, outside that Township, would sign a remonstrance against the division. It would be unjust to pass the bill, as it is unfair to attempt it at the end of the session, when its opponents have not time to remonstrate against it.

Bedford County has been cut up, and her best territory nearly all taken from her.—Middle Woodberry comprises some of the best land, and is one of the richest Townships in the County. Take it away, and we have scarcely any territory left, but mountains.—We hope the Legislature will not deal so unjustly with us.

Death of Thomas R. Gettys, Esq.

THOMAS R. GETTYS, ESQ., former editor of this paper, died in this place, on Friday, the 23d of March, inst. aged, we presume, about 72 years. Mr. Gettys came to Bedford a boy, early in the present century. He served an apprenticeship with Charles McDowell, Esq., dec'd, of the "Bedford Gazette." Mr. Gettys commenced the publication of a Democratic paper, "The True American," in 1813, which he carried on for a number of years, and then sold out the establishment, shortly after which it was discontinued. In 1827, he commenced the "Inquirer," which he published for some five or six years. He was, we believe, twice Treasurer of the County, three years each time, was the Democratic candidate for State Senate, but defeated through a schism in his party, and for twenty years a Justice of the Peace. He was the first County Superintendent of Public Schools, and filled at one time quite a prominent position in our County. Of late years he has been engaged in teaching school and surveying. Requiescat in pace.

WASHINGTON HOTEL.

We call attention to the advertisement of the Washington Hotel, by Mrs. S. Filler, in to-day's paper. Mrs. Filler has for years been the proprietress of the "Filler House," in this place. She is an excellent landlady, and will make the "Washington" one of the best Hotels in the State. We would advise our friends visiting Bedford, attending Court, &c., to give her a call.

BEDFORD LYCEUM.

The Bedford Lyceum will meet at the Court House on Saturday evening next, at 6½ o'clock. The public are invited to attend. Declaimer, G. H. Spang; Essayist, Wm. Fyan.—Question—"Was our Government justifiable in taking Martin Kozta from Austria?" Affirmative, O. H. Geither; Negative, John Palmer.

As the Buchanan papers are given to much boasting about the prestige of Gen. Foster, and his lucky nomination, we extract a few rather pointed comments upon the man and his luck, from the Pittsburgh Journal.

"At least five tenth rate politicians have beaten him out of his boots in Democratic caucuses. As we got our "broten up" in old Westmoreland we knew something of the potency of Democracy in that region. Foster in 1858 was the Democratic candidate for Congress in opposition to John Covode, in Westmoreland, Indiana and Armstrong, and was beaten nearly 1100 votes, if our memory is correct. We therefore do not think him on the score of prestige, a dangerous man. He has not been so in his own ranks, nor when pitted against our man. We say this to meet the extra flourishes of the Democracy. He is one of our highly esteemed friends, and we do not expect to say an unkind word of him in the campaign. We expect to assist in defeating him on account of the abominable bad company he keeps and the still worse platform on which he is mounted. Instead of being a lucky, we are sorry to say, the General has uniformly been an unlucky politician, especially too among his own political friends."

The Democratic party never entered upon a campaign with more cheering prospects than those attending the commencement of this campaign.—Harrisburg Patriot and Union.

There is generally a good deal of cheering in Democratic gatherings, and the prospect of spoils, however feeble, brings gladness to the hungry souls of the devoted patriots. There can be no doubt that there will be many cheering incidents in the coming campaign, but when the scene closes Democracy will find itself behind the Curtin.—Daily News.

COL. CURTIN AT HOME.—The Central Press, published at Bellefonte, the home of Col. Curtin, in its last issue, says:

Col. Curtin's return, on Tuesday evening, was the signal of one of the most brilliant popular outbursts we have ever witnessed. It was a response to the action at Harrisburg, which plainly indicates that the voters of his own immediate vicinity intend giving it an overwhelming ratification. "Straws show which way the wind blows," and so does this demonstration point unerringly to the direction in which the tide of public opinion is setting.—Scarcely had night thrown her sable curtin over the landscape, when the Borough of Bellefonte was illuminated with bonfires, and the welkin rung with the joyous shouts of congregated hundreds. A warmer welcome was never extended to any man, and never was the action of a Convention more heartily endorsed. About 7 o'clock in the evening, the crowd assumed the shape of a procession and headed by the Brass Band, made its way to the Colonel's residence. His presence was demanded by the unanimous shouts of the crowd, and upon appearing, the congratulations of his friends were presented in a few glowing sentences by R. G. Durham, Esq. After three rousing cheers, the nominee mounted the stump, and discoursed to the crowd in his happiest vein. As usual, he held all his old friends, and made some new ones. Cheer after cheer responded to the patriotic sentiments which he uttered, and earnest enthusiasm sat upon the countenance of every one present.

WHAT HIS OPPONENTS SAY OF HIM.—We clip the following complimentary notice of Col. Curtin from the Clinton Democrat, an administration paper, published by the present Deputy Secretary of the Commonwealth:

"Col. Curtin, the nominee for Governor, is well and favorably known to our people. He belongs to this Judicial, Congressional and Senatorial district, and during all his professional life has been one of the most prominent lawyers in this section of the State. As a politician he is bold vigorous, and uncompromising. For twenty five years he has been one of the sturdiest pillars of the Opposition in this quarter, under whatever name they sailed. In this quarter we have met him before as a candidate and a leader, and we tell the Democracy everywhere to buckle on their armor, for they will have to meet a foeman worthy of their steel."

For the Inquirer.

MR. EDITOR:—It is seldom that local news is of interest enough in this vicinity, to make it worthy of note in the columns of your paper, but within the last few days the community has been thrown into intense excitement, which is not yet appeased, and as no doubt exaggerating stories will be circulated throughout the county, I will give you the particulars as correctly as I can.

On election day the hands of the Bloomfield Iron works, numbering probably twenty-five, under the lead of Wm. Gates, came to town, and, as is usual on such occasions, got drunk, and about 3 o'clock they began to fight with everybody that happened to be in their reach. Peaceable and unassuming citizens were knocked down with impunity and running in every direction, with either bloody noses, or gashes cut in their hands, or otherwise bruised. The fight ceased for a short time, and Woodbury was expected to rest in quiet, but the drunken rowdies soon broke out anew, more furious than before, the most profane and blasphemous phrases rolling from their lips, too abominable to describe by words. The peaceable citizens, deemed it prudent to raise their hands against the ruffians, and drive the lawless rioters out of town, which they succeeded in doing, after a severe contest of about twenty minutes, but not without resorting to stones, clubs, &c. The most conspicuous in dealing out heavy blows, gratis, to the hyena tribe, were David Bulger and David Faulkender, the former, who, not thinking of any emergency, had not time to lay aside his apparel, but was divested of it before he got through with quelling the riot. The citizens of Woodbury made up a donation of eighteen dollars, to buy Mr. Bulger a new suit of clothes, which he richly deserves, with the praises of everybody, for his vigilance. Mr. Alexander Wyant, who was so brutally abused by the leader of the gang, is not expected to recover, as his nose is mashed, his jaws badly fractured, besides one of his eyes partly knocked out. OBSERVER.

Woodbury, Pa.

At their Old Tricks.

The 'Democratic' State Convention at Reading, passed a resolution, asserting that

"The convictions of the Democratic party of Pennsylvania remain unshaken in the wisdom and justice of adequate protection of iron, coal, wool," &c.,

You would suppose that these fellows were first rate Tariff men, after reading that resolution, wouldn't you? Well, let us see. The first resolution of the series reads as follows:

"Resolved, That, as representatives of the Democratic party of Pennsylvania, in Convention assembled, we do hereby reiterate and reaffirm our adherence in the fundamental principles of the party, as proclaimed and declared by the National Democratic Convention of 1852 at Baltimore, and that of 1856, at Cincinnatt."

What a beautiful contradiction is here exhibited. The Cincinnati platform which they say we "re iterate and re-affirm," advocates—and we use the very words—"PROGRESSIVE FREE TRADE!"

Here is an evident attempt to cheat the people, on the plan of the Kane letter of 1844. What a precious set of hypocritical political knaves these Locofocos are.

MR. FOSTER AT HOME.—The Greensburg (Westmoreland) Herald, published in Mr. Foster's own town, alluding to the game of brag by which the Locofocos have commenced the campaign, and their boast that Foster would carry Westmoreland by an old-fashioned Democratic majority, says:

"It won't do, and we say to everybody who wants to be placed on the record right, not to be "skeered." As in 1856 with James Buchanan, Mr. Foster is now nothing but a Platform of boards and timber. There are great principles at stake; those who have back bone will stand up to them. The game of brag ought not, cannot and will not effect anything. Mr. Foster will not run 100 votes ahead of his ticket in this county, no matter how "clever he is." Two years ago he lead his ticket only 276 votes, 95 of which were in this county alone, and which everybody knows was produced by dissatisfaction and personal heartburnings in our own party. There is none of this now. We are a unit, and enthusiastic in support of our State platform and its nominee Andrew G. Curtin, who upon the stump will prove to be abundantly able to defend our principles, and more than a match for Mr. Foster."

Great questions of public policy and of vital interest are agitating the country to its very centre. Those questions must be settled upon sound, national, constitutional grounds.—They must be settled not for the benefit of the North—not for the benefit of the South—not for the exclusive benefit of any section, but for the best interest and the common good of the whole country.—Henry D. Foster.

Just so. But the longer the Locofoco party retains power, the farther we shall be from a settlement of these agitating questions. Their leaders cannot settle them in their own party, and how are they to restore peace to the country? One wing of Democracy says, "squatter sovereignty" is the remedy; and another says "a slave code for the Territories" is the only means by which harmony can be restored.—The Locofoco party found the country at peace when they came into power in 1853. They promised to preserve that peace; but they at once went to work to stir up strife, and agitation has been growing more fierce ever since. After the country has suffered for so many years, under the treatment of Democratic doctors, it is time to have a change.—Daily News.

Immense meetings have been held, and are still being held throughout the State, to ratify the nomination of the People's Convention. The name of Andy Curtin is a tower of strength—and what is better, his nomination was not brought about by any trick or coup d'etat sprung upon the convention, as was the case in the nomination of Foster. There was a fair show to all the candidates in the one case, and a most palpable sell of the leading candidates for the Locofoco nomination in the other.—Trickery may succeed among politicians, but before the people it will be sure to meet with its reward.—Bucks Co. Intelligencer.

Gen. Scott, though now seventy-four years old, is still hale and vigorous.

CAN EPILEPSY BE CURED?

We think the following letter from a respectable citizen of Mississppi will answer the question, and remove all doubts from every unbiased mind:

GRENADA, MISS., June 5, 1855.

DR. SETH S. HANCE, BALTIMORE, MD.—Dear Sir: I take great pleasure in relating a case of spasms or fits, cured by your invaluable Pills.—My brother, J. J. Ligon, has long been afflicted with this awful disease. He was first attacked while quite young. He would have one or two spasms at one attack at first; but as he grew older, they seemed to increase likewise. Up to the time he commenced taking your Pills, he had them very often and quite severe, prostrating him body and mind. His mind had suffered seriously; but now, I am happy to say, he is cured of those fits. He has enjoyed fine health for the last five months past. His mind has also returned to its original sprightliness. All this I take a great pleasure in communicating, as it may be the means of directing others to the remedy that will cure them. Yours respectfully, &c.

W. P. LIGON.

No person who is suffering from Fits, or Spasms, should neglect sending to Dr. Hance, after this, for a supply of his inestimable medicine. His prices are as follows: one box $3; two $5: twelve $24—sent by mail free, on the receipt of a remittance. Address SETH S. HANCE, 108 Baltimore street, Baltimore, Md.

The community, in the death of Mr. Barnhart, has lost a bright ornament, the church of which he was a member, (the Evangelical Lutheran,) a faithful friend, one who loved it and labored for its good, and the wife and children a devoted husband and loving parent. He was a man of great moral worth—quiet and unassuming in his disposition, modest and retiring in his habits, yet firm and decided in his religious belief and practice. Death presented no terrors to his mind—for him, death had lost his sting and the grave its victory. Of him it may be said, "he being dead, yet speaketh."

WORTHY OF

Universal Confidence & Patronage.

FOR STATESMEN, JUDGES, CLERGYMEN,

Ladies and Gentlemen, in all parts of the world testify to the efficacy of Prof. O. J. Wood's Hair Restorative, and gentlemen of the Press are unanimous in its praise. A few testimonials only can be here given; see circular for more, and it will be impossible for you to doubt.

74 Wall Street, New York, Dec. 20th, 1858.

GENTLEMEN: Your note of 15th inst., has been received, saying that I had been benefited by the use of Wood's Hair Restorative, and requesting my certificate of the fact if I had no objection to give it.

I award it to you cheerfully, because I think it due. My age is about 50 years; the color of my hair auburn, and inclined to curl. Some five or six years since it began to turn gray, and the scalp on the crown of my head to lose its sensibility and dandruff to form upon it. Each of these disagreeabilities increased with time, and about four months since a fourth was added to them, by hair falling off the top of my head and threatening to make me bald.

In this unpleasant predicament, I was induced to try Wood's Hair Restorative, mainly to arrest the falling off of my hair, for I had really no expectation that my gray hair could ever be restored to its original except from dyes. I was however, greatly surprised to find after the use of two bottles only, that not only was the falling off arrested, but the color was restored to the gray hairs and sensibility to the scalp, and dandruff ceased to form on my head, very much to the gratification of my wife, at whose solicitation I was induced to try it.

For this among the many obligations I owe to her sex, I strongly recommend all husbands who value the admiration of their wives to profit by my example, and use it if growing gray or geting bald.

Very respectfully, BEN. A. LAVENDER.

To O. J. Wood & Co., 444 Broadway, New York.

My family are absent from the city, and I am no longer at No. 11 Carrol Place.

Siamaston, Ala., July 10th, 1859.

To Prof. O. J. Wood: Dear sir: 'Your Hair Restorative' has done my hair so much good since I commenced the use of it, that I wish to make known to the public or its agents on the hair, which are great. A man or woman may be nearly deprived of hair, and by a resort to your 'Hair Restorative,' the hair will return more beautiful than ever; at least this is my experience. Believe it all! Yours truly. WM. H. KENEDY.

P. S.—You can publish the above if you like.—By publishing in our southern papers you will get more patronage south. I see several of your certificates in the Mobile Mercury, a strong southern paper. W. H. Kenedy.

WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.

Professor O. J. Wood: Dear sir: Having had the misfortune to lose the best portion of my hair, from the effects of the yellow fever in New Orleans in 1851. I was induced to make a trial of your preparation, and found it to answer as the very thing needed. My hair is now thick and glossy, and no words can express my obligations to you in giving to the afflicted such a treasure.

FINLEY JOHNSON.

The Restorative is put up in bottles of three sizes, viz: large, medium, and small; the small holds ½ a pint, and retails for one dollar per bottle; the medium holds at least twenty per cent. more in proportion than the small, retails for two dollars per bottle; the large holds a quart, 40 per cents more in proportion, and retails for $3.

O. J. WOOD & CO., Proprietors, 444 Broadway New York, and 114 Market Street, St. Louis, Mo.

And sold by all good Druggists and Fancy Goods Dealers.

MOFFAT'S

Vegetable Life Medicines.

A mild yet effectual medicine, composed of the best material known to medical science, for the cleansing of the alimentary canal and relieving the springs and avenues of life of all morbid obstructions and impurities, must be a public blessing and a domestic and individual protection and safeguard, in proportion as it becomes known. Such a medicine the families of the United States have long had in MOFFAT'S CELEBRATED LIFE PILLS AND PHŒNIX BITTERS, and the good they have done is inestimable. They have won their high fame and firmly established character by their virtues alone, without the aid of the usual arts of notority or impudent experiment on the faith of the credulous.

In all general derangments of the digestive and alimentary functions, as well as in a vast variety of acute and chronic diseases, their effects are prompt and complete as to excite astonishment.

In rheumatism, settled pain in the organs and limbs, costiveness, piles, liver complaints, jaundice, nervous and bilious attacks, headaches, fever and ague, eruptive diseases, bad aspect of the complexion, indigestion and flatulency, cholics, affections of the bladder and kidneys, dropsy, asthma and bronchitis, rheumatic colds and sore throats, and indeed in almost every conceivable kind of ill health they are invaluable, and will afford certain, and most generally permanent relief. They require neither confinement nor change of diet—they neither prostrate the strength nor give pain—and a more delightful and effectual medicine cannot be procured either for individuals or families.

The proprietor has received for many years and is continually receiving the most fervent and grateful testimonials of their value. Prepared and sold by DR. WM. B. MOFFAT, 335 Broadway, and also by the agents.

THE subscribers offer for sale 60.000 Barrels of POUDRETTE, made by the LODI MANUFACTURING COMPANY, in Lots to suit Purchasers. This article is in the twentieth year of its introduction into this country, and has outlived fertilizers of every other description, for the following reasons:

1st. It is made from the night soil of the City of New York, by the L. M. Co., who have a capital of $100.000 invested in the business, which is at risk should they make a bad article.

2d. For Corn and Vegetables it is the cheapest, neatest and handiest manure in the world; it can be placed in direct contact with the seed, forces and ripens vegetation two weeks earlier, prevents the cut worm, doubles the crop, and is without disagreeable odor. Three dollars worth or two barrels is all sufficient to manure an acre of corn in the hill.

PRICE—1 bbl. $2—2 bbls. $3.50—5 bbls. $8, and over 6 bbls. $1.50 per barrel, delivered free of cartage, to vessels or railroad in New York City.

LINDSEY'S IMPROVED

BLOOD SEARCHER,

A STANDARD MEDICINE

For the speedy, radical, and effectual cure of ALL DISEASES arising from IMPURITY OF THE BLOOD.

This medicine has wrought the most miraculous cures in desperate cases of

Scrofula,	Cancerous formations,
Cutaneous Diseases,	Erysipelas, Boils,
Pimples on the face,	Sore Eyes,
Old, Stubborn Ulcers,	Scald Head,
Tetter affections,	Rheumatic Disorders,
Dyspepsia,	Costiveness,
Jaundice,	Salt Rheum,
Mercurial Diseases,	General Debility,
Liver Complaint,	Loss of Appetite,
Low Spirits,	Foul Stomach,

Female Complaints, and all Diseases having their origin in an impure state of the Blood.

The above is a portrait of David McCreary, of Napier township, who, on the 31st day of August, 1858, made affidavit before Justice Gorley that he was treated for the cure of Cancer by three physicians of Bedford County, and by Dr. Newton of the Eclectic College in Cincinnati, for a period of nearly eight months, notwithstanding which, his lip, nose, and a portion of his left cheek were entirely eaten away! He had given up all hope, when he heard of the "Blood Searcher," and was induced to try it. Four bottles cured him, and although sadly disfigured, there is no question but what this invaluable medicine saved his life. The full particulars of this remarkable case may be seen in a circular, which can be had of any of the Agents.

We also refer to the case of Nancy Blakney, of Emerson, Armstrong county, Pa., cured of Scrofula after being unable to get out of bed for three years.

To the case of a lady in Ansonville, Clearfield county, who was also afflicted with Scrofula in its worst form.

To the case of George Meisel, residing in Carrolltown Cambria county, Pa., who was so badly afflicted with Cancer that it eat his entire nose off, and his case was worse, if possible, than McCreary's.

The particulars of these cases—every one of which was cured by the use of the Blood Searcher—may also be found in a circular to be had of any of the Agents.

HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS.

IT is a fact that, at some period, every member of the human family is subject to disease or disturbance of the bodily functions; but, with the aid of a good tonic and the exercise of plain common sense, they may be able so to regulate the system as to secure permanent health. In order to accomplish this desired object, the true course to pursue is certainly that which will produce a natural state of things at the least hazard of vital strength and life. For this purpose, Dr. Hostetter has introduced to this country a preparation bearing his name, which is not a new medicine, but one that has been tried for years, giving satisfaction to all who have used it. The Bitters operate powerfully upon the stomach, bowels, and liver, restoring them to a healthy and vigorous action, and thus, by the simple process of strengthening nature, enable the system to triumph over disease.

For the cure of Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Nausea, Flatulency, Loss of Appetite, or any Bilious Complaints, arising from a morbid inaction of the Stomach or Bowels, producing Cramps, Dysentery, Colic, Cholera Morbus, &c., these Bitters have no equal.

Diarrhœa, dysentery or flux, so generally contracted by new settlers, and caused principally by the change of water and diet, will be speedily regulated by a brief use of this preparation. Dyspepsia, a disease which is probably more prevalent, in all its various forms, than any other, and the cause of which may always be attributed to derangements of the digestive organs, can be cured without fail by using HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS, as per directions on the bottle. For this disease every physician will recommend Bitters of some kind; then why not use an article known to be infallible? All nations have their Bitters, as a preventive of disease and strengthener of the system in general; and among them all there is not to be found a more healthy people than the Germans, from whom this preparation emanated, based upon scientific experiments which have tended to prove the value of this great preparation in the scale of medical science.

FEVER AND AGUE.—This trying and provoking disease, which fixes its relentless grasp on the body of man, reducing him to a mere shadow in a short time, and rendering him physically and mentally useless, can be driven from the body by the use of HOSTETTER'S RENOWNED BITTERS. Further, none of the above-stated diseases can be contracted, even in exposed situations, if the Bitters are used as per directions. And as they neither create nausea nor offend the palate, and render unnecessary any change of diet or interruption of ordinary pursuits, but promote sound sleep and healthy digestion, the complaint is removed as speedily as is consistent with the production of a thorough and permanent cure.

For Persons in Advanced Years, who are suffering from an enfeebled constitution and infirm body, these Bitters are invaluable as a restorative of strength and vigor, and need only be tried to be appreciated. And to a mother while nursing these Bitters are indispensable, especially where the mother's nourishment is inadequate to the demands of the child, consequently her strength must yield, and here it is where a good tonic, such as Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, is needed to impart temporary strength and vigor to the system. Ladies should by all means try this remedy for all cases of debility, and, before so doing, should ask their physician, who, if he is acquainted with the virtue of the Bitters, will recommend their use in all cases of weakness.

CAUTION.—We caution the public against using any of the many imitations or counterfeits, but ask for HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS, and see that each bottle has the words "Dr. J. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters" blown on the side of the bottle, and stamped on the metallic cap covering the cork, and observe that our autograph signature is on the label.

☞ Prepared and sold by HOSTETTER & SMITH, Pittsburgh, Pa., and sold by all druggists, grocers, and dealers generally throughout the United States, Canada, South America, and Germany.

DR. M'LANE'S CELEBRATED VERMIFUGE AND LIVER PILLS.

WE beg leave to call the attention of the Trade, and more especially the Physicians of the country, to two of the most popular remedies now before the public. We refer to
Dr. Chas. M'Lane's Celebrated
Vermifuge and Liver Pills.
We do not recommend them as universal Cure-alls, but simply for what their name purports, viz.:
THE VERMIFUGE,
For expelling Worms from the human system. It has also been administered with the most satisfactory results to various Animals subject to Worms.
THE LIVER PILLS,
For the cure of LIVER COMPLAINTS, all BILIOUS DERANGEMENTS, SICK HEAD-ACHE, &c. In cases of FEVER AND AGUE,
preparatory to or after taking Quinine, they almost invariably make a speedy and permanent cure.

As specifics for the above mentioned diseases, they are Unrivaled, and never known to fail when administered in accordance with the directions.

Their unprecedented popularity has induced the proprietors,
FLEMING BROTHERS,
PITTSBURGH, PA.
to dispose of their Drug business, in which they have been successfully engaged for the last Twenty Years, and they will now give their undivided time and attention to their manufacture. And being determined that Dr. M'Lane's Celebrated Vermifuge and Liver Pills shall continue to occupy the high position they now hold among the great remedies of the day, they will continue to spare neither time nor expense in procuring the Best and Purest material, and compound them in the most thorough manner. Address all orders to FLEMING BROS. Pittsburgh, Pa.

P.S. Dealers and Physicians ordering from others than Fleming Bros., will do well to write their orders distinctly, and take none but Dr. M'Lane's, prepared by Fleming Bros. Pittsburgh, Pa. To those wishing to give them a trial, we will forward per mail, post paid, to any part of the United States, one box of Pills for twelve three-cent postage stamps, or one vial of Vermifuge for fourteen three-cent stamps. All orders from Canada must be accompanied by twenty cents extra.

For sale by Dr. B. F. Harry, and Reamer & Way, Bedford, and by dealers generally throughout the County.

PERMANENT OFFICE.
Complying with the urgent request of hundreds of their patients,
Drs. C. M. Fitch and J. W. Sykes
HAVE CONCLUDED TO REMAIN
PERMANENTLY IN PITTSBURGH,
And may be consulted at their office,
NO. 190 PENN STREET,
Opposite St. Clair Hotel PITTSBURGH.

AND may be consulted daily, (except Sundays,) for CONSUMPTION, ASTHMA, BRONCHITIS, and all other CHRONIC COMPLAINTS complicated with or causing pulmonary disease, including Catarrh, Heart Disease, Affection of the Liver, Dyspepsia, Gastritis, Female Complaints, etc.

Drs. FITCH & SYKES would state that their treatment of consumption is based upon the fact that the disease exists in the blood and system at large, both before and during its development in the lungs, and they therefore employ Mechanical, Hygienic and Medicinal remedies to purify the blood and strengthen the system. With these they use MEDICAL INHALATIONS, which they value highly, but only as Palliatives, (having no curative effect when used alone,) and invalids are earnestly cautioned against wasting the precious time of curability upon any treatment based upon the plausible, but false idea that the "seat of disease can be reached in a direct manner by Inhalation." For as before stated, the seat of the disease is in the blood and its effects only in the lungs.

☞ No charge for consultation.

A list of questions will be sent to those wishing to consult us by letter.
